

Limber

Adaptive Space

Flexible and Configurable

Limber is an adaptable solution to all your office needs. Ideal for training rooms, lectured seminars or conferences, the extensive collection includes an array of adaptable training tables, training chairs and recycling cabinets. Every training product can be adjusted and configured for the specific environment, allowing for greater communication as well as flexible learning within the workplace.

The Limber collection can be easily reconfigured to suit various spaces made for interactive learning.

The Ideal Fit for Versatile Workplaces

As modern workplaces forever evolve, office spaces need to be both flexible and easily adapted to the environment. Limber is an agile solution, allowing you to refit offices for spontaneous assemblies. Last-minute meetings, spur-of-the-moment conferences, improvised training sessions or off-the-cuff learning environments – Limber can be easily shaped to fit your contemporary needs.

Product Highlight

Cable Management: Simple and Tech-Friendly

Limber’s comprehensive setup includes a tech-friendly cable management system. Wires can be effortlessly tucked away under surfaces to allow for cleaner work environments. Power modules are also supported, offering greater assistance for plug-and-play functions and continuous connectivity.
