AMID THE CLUTTER, A CLEARING

In matter, they saw form. In objects, they found spirit. Out of the celebrated tradition of Italian craftsmanship, between a finite world and infinite vision, comes Tria, a remarkably modern executive desk.

The Tria desking series features a sweeping veneer work surface on gently angled frames. Free of frills, adornment and ornamentation, Tria's modern design makes a clean break with the clutter of convention. It creates more free space for what matters most. Tria offers only what you need and nothing that you don't.

IN SIMPLICITY, EVERYTHING ESSENTIAL

Tria's austere design provides a refreshingly versatile platform for personal customization as well.

Veneer leg infills are available to match the sweeping desktop surface, heightening a sense of continuity and comfort. The gently angled frames, distinguished by simple geometry, are available in glossy black, white or silver to accommodate variations in taste.

Subtle angles and simple lines suggest both form and freedom

READY TO HAND

The easy integration of storage further distinguishes the Tria desking series. Truly an executive desk, the tastefully streamlined design facilitates business interactions while keeping essential materials organized and ready to hand.
